

LARAMIE COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

LCCC is committed to learning. We believe that academic inquiry, personal integrity, and respect for self and others are the foundation of the educational experience. Therefore, all members of the campus community will strive to create a campus environment of mutual respect and high ethical standards. LCCC students, faculty and staff have the right to experience, and the responsibility to maintain, a safe educational community that is civil in all aspects of human relations.